

50 Phenomenal Beaches Just Minutes Apart

Search our FREE App
 "50 Beaches PEI" at:

www.50beaches.com | #50beaches

Southern Banks #HomeoftheSundayDrive Pinette to Cape Bear 46 km / 29 m

Red cliffs offer a dramatic welcome to ferry passengers arriving from Nova Scotia. This 46km route also features a winery, a historic lighthouse, two Provincial Parks and several red and white sand beaches, as well as three distinctive Heritage Roads carrying travelers back to pioneer days.

- #11 - Simon's Beach. (A4) Small beach with scenic location.
- #11A - MacLeod Beach, Wood Islands. (A4) Off Rte. 1. Bright red cliffs and a view of the Northumberland Ferries. There's a beautiful sand bar for strolling on. No facilities.
- #12 - Wood Islands Ferry Terminal and Harbour. (A4) Gateway to Eastern Prince Edward Island for arrivals from Nova Scotia on ferries operating May - December.
- #13 - Wood Islands Lighthouse and Interpretive Museum (1876). (A4) Houses over 200 historic artifacts telling the story of lighthouse keepers.
- #14 - Wood Islands Provincial Park and Beach. (A4) Day park featuring playground, unsupervised beach, flush toilets, boat ramp and picnic facilities.
- #15 - Wood Island Welcome Centre. (A4) First stop for arrivals from Nova Scotia. Houses Tourism Information and picnic area. Email/internet access. Entry point to cycle and walk Confederation Trail.
- #16 - Northumberland Provincial Park and Beach. (A3) Popular 76-acre site has camping, lifeguard, and playground with program activities for children.
- #17 - Panting's Shore Beach (Off Rte.4) (A3) Shallow red sand beach No Facilities.
- #18 - Rossignol Estate Winery. (B3) On cliffs overlooking the Northumberland Strait, offers vineyard and winery tour, display of Island artistry, and award-winning fruit wines. On-site purchasing in Little Sands.

